PASSPORT ENDORSEMENTS

(CT:CITZ-80; 08-26-2022)
(Office of Origin: CA/PPT/S/A)

8 FAM 505.2-1 Endorsement Code Procedures

(CT:CITZ-80; 08-26-2022)

a. “Endorsement” means an official stamped, typed, or written indication of the circumstances under which a passport was issued or can be used. The bearer may also be provided with an information notice (IN) that provides more information on the endorsement. Endorsed passports indicate that:

- (1) They are valid only for a specific period of time;
- (2) The bearer has a certain status; and/or
- (3) There is some other relevant information about the bearer of the passport.

b. Supervisory consular officers abroad and directors of passport agencies and centers must ensure that endorsements are processed correctly. You must use the standard wording given for each endorsement. Do not modify the endorsement text unless specifically authorized by:

- (1) Passport Services (CA/PPT) for passport agencies and centers;
- (2) CA/PPT or Overseas Citizen Services, American Citizen Services (CA/OCS/ACS) for posts; and
- (3) The Special Issuance Agency (CA/PPT/SIA) for special issuance passports.

c. You must use the specific endorsement prescribed for the situation at hand and avoid the indiscriminate use of general endorsements such as Code 46. The use of a nonstandard endorsement or incorrect use of a standard endorsement may cause confusion, problems for the traveler, or inappropriate action in subsequent adjudication. Uniform use of endorsements will avoid such confusion, and minimize the need to retrieve and review previous passport files.

d. Specific guidance about the use of endorsements is provided in the corresponding subject instructions in 8 FAM. The endorsement code must be noted in the appropriate space on the passport application.

e. See 8 FAM 706.1 for specific information on using endorsements with passport cards.

f. If a passport book contains two or more endorsements, e.g., endorsements 73 and 75, that limit its validity period:

- (1) For regular passport books, the validity period is equal to the minimum length of time provided in this subchapter. For example, if one endorsement limits the passport book to one year, and the second limits it to two years, the passport book would be issued with a one-year validity period; and

(2) Special-issuance passports must be limited only with regard to the applicant's entitlement to the special issuance passport:

(a) All issues should be resolved prior to the issuance of a special-issuance passport. For example, an applicant who did not submit an acceptable U.S. birth certificate must submit an acceptable birth certificate before being issued a special-issuance passport; and

(b) CA/PPT/SIA may authorize exceptions to this policy in special, emergency circumstances and limit the passport book for an appropriate period of time to meet U.S. Government objectives.

f. The total length of the endorsements in the next generation passport is limited to 900 characters.

g. Unless provided otherwise in this subchapter, U.S. passports (except emergency passports) must be issued for a minimum of one year, even if the passport would otherwise be limited for less than one year, e.g., because of a limited period of entitlement. The one-year validity period provides sufficient time for the applicant to:

(1) Receive the passport;

(2) Obtain all necessary visas;

(3) Comply with airline carriage requirements;

(4) Comply with foreign entry/exit requirements; and

(5) Complete their travel.

h. CA/PPT/SIA may authorize the deletion of an endorsement in a special-issuance passport book if the status granted by the endorsement no longer applies and the applicant will remain entitled to the passport book for a period of time equal to or greater than its current validity. The special-issuance passport book would then be amended to add the new, correct endorsement (see 8 FAM 1004.1). Otherwise, the applicant must re-apply and a new special-issuance passport book issued for a period appropriate to the applicant's entitlement. To delete an endorsement:

(1) Use a ruler and a black pen to neatly line out the endorsement text; and

(2) Insert endorsement DEL and the new endorsement (if applicable).

j. In the next-generation passport, endorsements are printed in the order selected.

8 FAM 505.2-2 LIST OF CURRENT ENDORSEMENTS

This section contains all the endorsements currently available in the Travel Document Issuance System (TDIS) and/or American Citizens Services (ACS) system. If a previous endorsement does not appear in this list, it may be available in the Foreign Affairs Manual archive for this subchapter, or in the 1992 endorsement list available on the CAWeb.
